THE IN-LAWS

Peter Falk Alan Arkin

Anything goes in this mad-cap comedy adventure as in-laws become outlaws. The mysterious, loony father of the groom involves the dentist dad of the bride in a conspiracy carrying them from Washington rooftops to a banana republic. Peter Falk and Alan Arkin are hilarious as the mismatched pair. "Sidesplitting . . . wonderful comedy of errors" (New York Times) Mild obscenities. (PG-1:43) June 1,5,9,13,17,21,25,29

Standing Room Only: Red Skelton's Funny Faces

In his first TV special in almost a decade, Red Skelton stars in a dazzler of a comedy/mime show. Watch the finest artists in the field from Shields and Yarnell to the whimsical creatures from Mummenschanz. Red performs many of his classic routines including the inimitable Clem Kaddiddlehopper. June 3,7,11,16,20,22

The Silent Partner

Elliott Gould stars in an ingenious thriller of money and murder—and how to get away with both. Gould is a mild-mannered teller, until bank robber Christopher Plummer gives him the chance to rip off his own bank. Strong language, brief nudity, violence. (R-1:45) June 3,9,11,15,19

A Different Story

An old-fashioned love story with a new-fangled twist. Boy meets girl; but boy is gay, girl is gay. Perry King is the man Meg Foster takes in as a new roommate. "Off-beat . . . sexy, tender, very romantic" (Los Angeles Times) Adult situations and language. (R-1:48) June 9,13,17,26

Consumer Reports presents: The Medicine Show

From Consumer Reports magazine, here's HBO's exclusive new series of timely consumer information and money-saving tips. Learn some truth about over-the-counter drugs. Hard facts about cold remedies—and the real story on aspirin. It's eye-opening entertainment and information. June 2,6,10,15,21

The Doobie Brothers

In Concert

Here are the rockin' Doobie Brothers in one knockout of a concert. Hear all their biggest hits from "Minute by Minute" to this year's Grammy Award-winning "What a Fool Believes". Four musicians, nine years plus 25 million records sold adds up to one great night. June 4, 7, 9, 15, 20

Up From the Depths

For a really different summer vacation, how about this Hawaiian beach resort where a ravaging monster wreaks havoc on innocent swimmers? Sam Bottoms, Susanne Reed and a gigantic prehistoric fish become amusingly involved in this horror-comedy. Profanity, graphic horror, brief nudity. (R-1:25) June 3, 6, 12, 16

Women's Gymnastics

Caesars Palace Invitational Part II. Watch America's top female gymnasts hurtle through the air, do backflips on the beam and daring routines on the uneven bars. Stars like Tracee Talavera will battle for individual titles as these acrobatic women put on some of the most spellbinding performances in all of sport. June 2, 4, 8

Eyes of Laura Mars

Faye Dunaway

Offbeat thriller set in the exotic world of high fashion. Faye Dunaway, a top photographer lonely and vulnerable behind her chic facade, becomes the focal point of a series of murders. Tommy Lee Jones is the cop on the case. Nudity, profanity, violence. (R-1:43) June 5, 10, 14, 18

The Frisco Kid Gene Wilder

An offbeat comedy western—funny, exciting, touching. A Polish immigrant and a soft-hearted outlaw battle their way through gunmen and Indians to reach San Francisco in the Gold Rush days. Gene Wilder is the greenhorn who thinks California is near New York. Harrison Ford plays his bank robber pal. "Wilder is superb" (S.F. Chronicle) Mild vulgarities. (PG-1:58)
June 6,10,12,14,18,22

Part I. When Joe Louis, Jack Dempsey and Rocky Marciano floored their opponents, they stayed on the canvas. In the first of six specials about the most popular boxing divisions, HBO again lets you see the awesome power of the greatest punchers ever! Curt Gowdy hosts. June 12,17
Part II. Quick hands, nimble footwork and deadly combination punches made champions of Muhammad Ali, Jim Corbett and Gene Tunney. You'll marvel at the ingenuity and tactics of these supreme heavyweight stylists. June 26

Bread and Chocolate

Italian immigrant Nino Manfredi bounces through a series of comic situations in order to survive in Switzerland and support his family back home. Manfredi is perfect in this drama of one man's attempt to work in another man's world. Adult situations, language. (1:50) June 1,5,7

City on Fire

A fiery disaster film in which an entire American city goes ablaze—the result of some unforeseen “accidents”. Starring Shelley Winters and Henry Fonda. Profanity, violence. (R-1:46) June 2,4

The World's Greatest Escapes Hosted by Tony Curtis

Thrilling and chilling! This HBO exclusive features America's greatest death-defying escape artists. Host Tony Curtis introduces Steve Baker's re-creation of Houdini's famous “Chinese Water Torture Cell”; and

Dorothy Dietrich, who escapes from a straight jacket while hanging from a burning rope; plus there's lots more. It's breathtaking and bound to astound the whole family. June 10,13,15,21,25

The Onion Field

Powerful drama based on California's longest criminal court case. John Savage is superb as an anguished survivor of a fellow cop's murder. Based on Joseph Wambaugh's bestseller, it's a fascinating study of the devastating effects of murder. James Wood and Franklyn Seales co-star. Profanity, violence, brief nudity. (R-2:01) June 15,19,23,27

Guilty or Not Guilty:

The State vs. Dr. Coppolino
A probing look at one of the most infamous and controversial American criminal trials. This bizarre case history involves drugs, sex, hypnosis, and "maybe" murder. June 1,5,9,14

Rollerball

James Caan is the star of a violent spectator sport in the year 1981. But the bored citizens of this 'utopia' want more than just sport from Caan. Adult situations and language, violence. (R-2:00) June 2,4,8

Dr. No

Sean Connery as James Bond

Here's the very first of the James Bond action thrillers—and another in HBO's series of his most exciting adventures. In this one, Sean Connery, as 007, encounters a master criminal menacing America's space program. Plenty of daring escapes and clever gadgets plus lovely Ursula Andress in the lush West Indies. Adult situations, violence. (PG-1:51) June 14,18,22,26,30

Candid The Candid Camera

Get set for another installment of HBO's newest hit! Once again Allen Funt is let loose to catch people off-guard in their funniest, most adult moments. He creates the kind of outlandish situations that no one would ever want to be in. He'll make you turn red, but mostly with laughter. Watch as Allen hides his camera in some highly unlikely spots. You'll do more than smile at the Candid Candid Camera, you'll roar. June 13,16,19,25

Wanda Nevada

When a con man wins an orphan at poker, it sets off an improbable adventure. Peter Fonda and Brooke Shields are the unlikely but very likable pair. The charming story of their up and down relationship has the Grand Canyon as a magnificent setting. Profanity, adult relationships. (PG-1:47) June 17,21,23,26,29

Nunzio

A special film about a very special man. Likable Nunzio is physically mature but has the mind of a child. Filled with dreams that he's a super-hero, he tries to act out his fantasies. His family, especially his brother, is devoted to him. David Proval and James Andronica co-star. Profanity, brief nudity. (R-1:27) June 19,23,27

Diving

International Championships

CAN-AM-MEX Meet. "It's 33 feet up and 133 feet down." That's what divers say about performing off the 10-meter tower. World-class divers from the U.S., Canada, Mexico and East Germany will tuck, twist, somersault and cut the water in this major competition. June 16,19,20,22,25

The Return of a Man Called Horse

Richard Harris plays an English Lord, once a slave of the Sioux, who became their brother. He comes back to the tribe to help re-establish their independence in this sequel to A Man Called Horse. Harris as John Morgan delivers a strong performance. (PG-2:01) June 18,22,24,30
